

The End Of The Sotry

Helena Noguerra

Intro

A

I will never know the end of the story
I will never tell let us call it history
I will never mind, cos if I mind I'm lost and I want to be found
Oh Baby don't move

Keep on typing words on the screen words no one will fine (Words no one will find)
It's a long way to love (It's a long way to love)
I will take time (More than a second)
No need to hurry cos love can wait and we will wait and see
(No matter the end of the story)
If the barn needs to burn but I guess it won't
Fire never lies
(Fire never lies)
And if it's hot enough we'll call it love

B

We will wait and see the end of the story
Cos if we wait and see
We will find a cool end to the story
And we'll call it present instead of history

I will never know the end of the story
No I will never tell let us call it history
I will never look in your eyes so deep
That you think I'm lying
I will never cry
And if I'm really down, I'll peel off onions

B'

Let me take a seat
Cos if I'm seated I won't fall I guess
I'll be alive
Even if living is a mess I wouldn't change a word
I'll do my best to keep on going
Fire never lies
Lies , Lies , I will never know
