I admit it girl at first
I was tryin' to quench my thirst
Never in my wildest dreams
I'd sit and think I'd catch this curse

Now I can't tell right from wrong
It's blurry with my glasses on
Buts what clear is you appeared
And ever since I strung along

How'd you do it?
This thing I've never felt before
Goin thru it
Cuz you done opened up that door
I feel foolish
I guess you took over my mind
And I blew it
I thought ahead
I left behind

Just a minute!
Give me just a minute of your time
Just a minute!
However long it takes to make you mine
Just a minute!
I know you got a short attention span
Just a minute!
However long it takes to be your man

And I admit it after bed
I was trying to catch my breath
(And) never in my wildest dreams
I'd think I'd need a cigarette
But it all went up in smoke
Left me shakin' like a stroke

Left me open like a cut
I was the butt of your own joke

How'd you do it?
This thing I've never felt before
Goin thru it
Cuz you done opened up that door
I feel foolish
I guess you took over my mind
And I blew it
I thought ahead

Just a minute!
Give me just a minute of your time
Just a minute!
However long it takes to make you mine
Just a minute!
I know you got a short attention span
Just a minute
However long it takes to be your man
(Musical interlude)

Just a minute!
Give me just a minute of your time
Just a minute!
However long it takes to make you mine
Just a minute!
I know you got a short attention span
Just a minute
However long it takes to be your man
