

Mystery

God have mercy
Did she curse me?
It concerns me
'Cause my heart's burning

Hocus Pocus
I can't focus
The diagnosis
I don't know it

Every time I give in
That's when all her games begin
When the verdict settle in
I'm locked up inside again
Now I'm hooked, set me free
The hypnotic gravity
I keep floating in between
I can't seem to solve her

She's a mystery
She won't give it up for free
We go up and down and back and forth
And still, we can't agree
Mystery
I wish I could find the key
I would unlock all the loving that's escaping me
But she's a mystery

Oh my goodness
How'd you do this?
She's so ruthless
But she still soothes me

I'm stuck in a ditch
I feel helpless
Getting desperate
SOS, yeah

I know every time I give in
That's when all her games begin
When the verdict settle in
I'm locked up inside again
And now I'm hooked, set me free
The hypnotic gravity
I keep floating in between
I can't seem to solve her

She's a mystery
She won't give it up for free
We go up and down and back and forth
And still, we can't agree
A mystery
I wish I could find the key

She's a mystery
We go up and down and back and forth
Mystery

I can't figure it out
